Conference Rules

As this is a Christian conference with participants from around the world with various traditions and Biblical understandings, it is important everyone adhere to the following rules and show respect for one another. All registrants will attend and participate in all sessions and no one will leave the conference site without permission from their chaperone. Smoking is only permitted at conference breaks in designated areas of the college campus, in accordance with legal limitation. Use of alcohol is not permitted during conference time and is expressly forbidden for anyone under the legal age (21). Use of drugs except prescribed medications will not be tolerated. All participants will show respect to fellow participants in their words, actions, and attitudes. These rules are necessary for the good of the conference and will be adhered to or participant will come under review by the Youth Commission or organizers of the conference. We want everyone to have a positive experience at this conference.

I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of this conference and do all I can to make it a great experience.
